Dear Vendors:

We are looking for emerging vendors that range from repurposed and vintage home decor to farmhouse finds and industrial goodness, with a few vendors selling handmade items that blend well with the other dealers, and everything in between. What will unify us is our love for the time worn past, getting our hands dirty, and wanting to be with like-minded people. Vendors are responsible for the creation of their own vendor space, including display pieces and walls. We encourage our vendors to produce a beautiful, inviting and boutique-style space. Since we have limited amount of vendor space we reserve the right to pick and choose our vendors based on quality of setup and merchandise. We are a vintage, antique and artisan market. All vendors must have at least 90% vintage, antique, and handmade items. We allow a very small amount of reproduction vintage-inspired items. We reserve the right to ask you to remove wholesale items if we think it overtakes your space. All vendors must create a boutique style space with in their allotted space. Our customers have come to expect this when they attend the KVM. If customers can't picture it in their setting they won't buy it! This is what brings customers together for a short time to share what we have found or crafted. You are what makes our show successful and we are committed to bringing you the best booth space, the best show accommodations, and the best buying crowd.

This is an all indoor event, but not climate controlled, so no tents please. Food trucks will be outside. Vendors will be able to set up on Thursday, Friday, and by appointment earlier in the week which we definitely suggest due to space limitations. Please be completely set up by no later than 4:45 on Friday.

If you have any questions about booth space, call Whitney at 412-425-3449.

Thank you, in advance, for making this a successful show that will hopefully build for years to come!

Regards,

Whitney Jurgovan - event creator and coordinator
